The Burns Development League and Harney County Fair Association are certainly making good and deserve the encouragement of all our citizens...

Senator Hart, of Baker City, was interviewing his constituents in this county during the week, inquiring into their legislative wants.

COMPLETE IRRIGATION PLANT.

One of the interesting, and perhaps the most beneficial, exhibits during the fair was a complete irrigation plant, consisting of a five-horse power gasoline engine and centrifugal pump.

As irrigation is one of the particular features to farmers in Harney valley it was of great benefit to them and demonstrated the fact that irrigation by pumping was possible and that the gasoline engine was practically safe.

This exhibit should be sufficient to solve the irrigation problem of Harney valley and be the means of much more farming and a larger yield per acre from this time on.

It was also of interest to the stock man in making the matter of furnishing water for stock at a nominal cost. Besides this feature would come the power for sawing wood, running a farming mill, barley crusher, dairying, lighting, etc.

FOR SALE.

About 400 head of cattle, beef included. Summer range 320 acres and all hay land 480 acres, about 14 head of horses and one house and lot in Burns, Thos. Wingfield.

Call on or write MORRIS WINFIELD, Burns, Oregon.

Grain sacks at the Busy Corner Store.

Bucks for Sale.

I have a band of Thoroughbred Registered Rams, bred from the Franco Ramboulette and Delaine stock. This stock is now exclusively used throughout Eastern Oregon and are giving satisfaction.

WOOL AND MUTTON.

THE GOVERNOR VISITS US

NOTHING BUT PRAISE FOR OUR MAGNIFICENT COUNTRY.

Entire Party Most Agreeably Surprised and Predict a Great Future for us-- Tom Richardson Sends Regards.

Governor George E. Chamberlain and party arrived in this city Wednesday at noon and were greeted by a very representative and enthusiastic crowd of Harney county citizens who had gathered to do him honor.

Besides the Governor the party was composed of Hon. Jefferson Myers, president of the Lewis and Clark fair commission and now at the head of the state commission for the Jamestown exposition next year; Oswald West, State Land Agent; Joseph Barton, general manager of the Sumpter Valley; Hon. J. N. Hart, state senator for Baker, Harney and Malheur, and Dr. W. B. Morse, member of the state board of health.

Several of our local citizens accompanied President Marsden of the "Push Club" out to Poison creek where the party was taken in charge and escorted to the city. The band boys met them at the entrance to Burns and marched to Main Street. Here the public school and high school pupils were gathered and greeted the Governor with rousing cheers.

Governor Chamberlain stepped from his carriage after the greeting of the school children and addressed them, at once winning the hearts of all his hearers in his usual happy way. The ladies' band also participated in welcoming our chief executive.

After luncheon the party was escorted to the fair grounds where Governor Chamberlain spoke to an immense throng that had gathered to do him honor. He paid an excellent tribute to the great Harney County and predicted a great future for it. He insisted that we do not realize our opportunities and possibilities. Like all others who view Harney Valley for the first time, the Governor was most agreeably surprised to find such an immense body of fine agricultural land.

Thursday afternoon the Governor addressed the Indians from the grand stand after Dr. Marsden had spoken to them in their own language. At the Governor's own request there was no special effort made to entertain him in particular--he mingled with the crowd at the fair grounds, visited the pavilion, the racing, stables, dined and visited informally with his personal friends, as suited his own pleasure.

This added to his popularity and made all feel that he was indeed an executive to be proud of. He was here as the guest of all the people and to get acquainted with them--to view this magnificent Inland Empire and thoroughly familiarize himself with conditions the better to act intelligently upon all matters coming before him.

As an evidence of his appreciation of his treatment by our people, Governor Chamberlain promised friends that he will come again, possibly next fall, and will spend a whole week with the good people of Harney county.

Hon. Jefferson Myers delivered an address at the grand stand on Thursday afternoon in which he contrasted the exhibit at the fair this year with that of three years ago when he visited us for the first time. "Jeff" has been singing our praises ever since that first visit and now feels he is something of a prophet as things he predicted at that time have proven true even sooner than expected.

"Jeff" is one of the most popular men in Oregon and was a particular friend to Harney county during the Lewis and Clark fair. He stated during the course of his remarks that his happiness on this trip would have been complete had he been able to bring Tom Richardson to view Harney Valley in order that the latter might go forth and "preach the truth" about this great empire.

Mr. Myers then read the following letter: "Hon. Jefferson Myers, Care Dr. W. L. Marsden, Burns, Oregon. "My dear Sir: "I don't remember ever experiencing such a disappointment as I shall feel at not being able to accompany yourself and Governor Chamberlain to Burns. It is a section of our state with which I had hoped to become familiar, and I still intend to go there at a later date.

"As you know, my plans were made for the trip this time, but at Spokane there were so many people on the streets (it being Spokane Day at their fair) and it was so difficult to get a vehicle that we missed our train. Having been away from my office so much of late, it was really impossible for me to start on another journey without at least a few hours spent in arranging affairs that demanded my attention.

"If you will express my sincere regret to the people of Burns, explaining the cause of my absence, I shall be very grateful. I fully appreciate what I am missing. "Truly yours, "TOM RICHARDSON."
